Press Release

Cuckmere Bus Travels to the Science Centre

Cuckmere Buses (CCB) is working with the Observatory Science Centre at Herstmonceux by providing a return bus service directly from Eastbourne to The Centre every Wednesday until 21 October. Service 49 will leave Terminus Road (stop A) at 11am and 12noon. The 36 minute journey travels via Devonshire Place, along the seafront to the Sovereign Centre, then to Langney Shops, Westham, Pevensey Castle, Wartling and the Science Centre. The return journey leaves the Observatory at 11.45am, 12.45pm and 2.45pm. English concessionary bus passes are accepted on this service and the bus will stop on route wherever it is safe to do so. And as a little extra, visitors get a discounted entry to The Centre by showing their same day bus ticket. Philip Ayers, Managing Director of CCB, said "We are pleased to be working with the Science Centre by offering an easy means for people to reach this world famous observatory which provides hands-on science and discovery for all ages".

Note for editors:

- Cuckmere Buses, the trading name for Cuckmere Community Bus (CCB), is an independent charity run entirely by trained volunteers. It was launched in 1976 to supplement existing bus services and provide bus links for village residents to their nearest towns throughout the Cuckmere Valley area.
- Based in Berwick, East Sussex, CCB now have around 55 volunteer drivers and 10 additional volunteers who run its fleet of eight low-floor mini buses providing an important link with shops, doctors' surgeries and social facilities for those who do not live on a main bus route.
- We are a busy voluntary organisation and new volunteers are always welcome to join us.
- Cuckmere Community Bus was awarded the Queen's Award for Voluntary Service, the highest award given to volunteer groups across the UK, for outstanding work undertaken in their local communities.
- Cuckmere Community Bus has been awarded the Community Transport Association's prestigious Quality Mark confirming that they are operating within the relevant legislation and best practice within the voluntary sector.
